

UAB CESAME – NSF Noyce Teaching Scholarship Checklist

<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Date Completed
<input type="checkbox"/>		1	Notify UAB CORD office of your interest in applying for the NSF Noyce Teaching Scholarship (www.uab.edu/cord 205.934-5171).
<input type="checkbox"/>		2	Obtain CESAME – NSF Teaching Scholarship Application packet
<input type="checkbox"/>		3	Meet with CESAME Program directors, Dr. Wyss or Dr. Radford to discuss program opportunities, requirements, and procedures.
<input type="checkbox"/>		4	Meet with advisor in School of Education (Check with Office of Student Services, Room 100 in Education Bld., http://uab.edu/soestudentservices.)
<input type="checkbox"/>		5	Take the GRE and receive an acceptable score on the verbal and quantitative sections (290+ with a min. undergraduate GPA of 3.5 or 300+ with a min. GPA of 3.0).
<input type="checkbox"/>		6	Submit an application to the UAB Graduate School via the online “Apply Yourself” website, including application fee, transcripts, and letters of recommendation.
<input type="checkbox"/>		7	Take and receive an acceptable score on the state required Praxis II Content Knowledge Test in the area of math or science for which you seek certification.
<input type="checkbox"/>		8	Obtain clearance on the criminal background check required by the Alabama State Department of Education.
<input type="checkbox"/>		9	Take and receive a passing score on all parts of the state APTTP (see https://actapps.act.org/wkala/wkala.)
<input type="checkbox"/>		10	Submit a negative TB test.
<input type="checkbox"/>		11	Enroll in EDU 500, EHS 600, and ECY 600.
<input type="checkbox"/>		12	Continue taking the required science/math and education courses according to the AMP program checklist.
<input type="checkbox"/>		13	Maintain a minimum 3.0 GPA in all course work during the period of the scholarship.