

Application for Graduate Assistantship Funding

Applications due by May 15, 2016

We are seeking full-time Graduate Teaching/Research Assistants to perform teaching -related or research-related assignments to benefit the Ph.D. program in Educational Studies in Diverse Populations (ESDP).

Position requires a full-time enrollment (9 hrs/semester, including summer which equals 27 hrs per year) as a doctoral ESDP student in good standing. Full-time UAB employees are not eligible for these funds.

The award also requires that you be available to work 20 hrs/week on assigned tasks.

Return this completed form, along with a CV to Andrew McKnight (andrewmcknight@uab.edu).

1. Full Name and Blazer ID:
2. Mailing address and preferred phone number:
3. Name of ESDP Faculty Advisor (if assigned):
4. Anticipated term you plan to complete program requirements:
5. Year you were admitted to the program:
6. Cumulative GPA for completed graduate course work:
7. GRE or MAT score:
8. As of Fall 2016, please state number of credit hours you have left to take in the program.
9. Are you currently employed?
 - a. If YES, how many hours do you work each week?
 - b. Will you continue this employment if offered a Graduate Assistantship?
10. What other financial aid do you receive from UAB as a graduate student?
11. Are you interested in teaching education course(s)?
 - a. If yes, what content area(s) do you feel most competent to teach?
12. Are you interested in assisting faculty with research and training projects?

Please attach a CV

Award notification will be announced by May 30.