

Faculty Position – Director Operations and Finance - OCGP

The School of Nursing at the University of Alabama at Birmingham (UAB) invites applications and nominations for a full-time faculty position focused on the oversight of operational matters of the Office of Clinical and Global Partnerships (OCGP) at School of Nursing. This position oversees the financial, budgeting, human resources, risk management, and information technology of OCGP in collaboration with the Directors in each unit.

Candidates for this faculty position must have at least ten years of administrative/financial/human resources experience, preferably in health care and/or higher education. A minimum of a master's degree is required. Significant experience as an organization's senior financial and IT leader, including direct responsibility for general ledger and grant accounting functions required. Rank, tenure, and salary are competitive and commensurate with professional background and experience. Faculty may negotiate different degrees of emphasis on the teaching, service and scholarship components of the faculty role. This is not a remote position.

The School of Nursing's legacy of leadership is focused on the integration of research, education, and clinical practice and evidenced in more than 22,000 alumni serving as expert clinicians, executive nurse leaders, deans and directors of nursing programs, nurse scientists, advanced practice registered nurses, and other professional leaders. The School is ranked in the top nursing schools nationwide by U.S. News and World Report and offers innovative baccalaureate, post-baccalaureate, master's, post-master's, doctoral and post-doctoral programs. These include the state's oldest and most honored PhD in Nursing, a Doctor of Nursing Practice with a Nurse Anesthesia Pathway, a Dual DNP/PhD Pathway, a Graduate Clinical Nursing program that includes a MSN and a DNP, with more than 15 specialty and subspecialty tracks with dual degree options, advanced practice tracks in geriatrics, nursing and health care administration, and care transitions, among others; an Accelerated Master's in Nursing Pathway for individuals with a bachelor's degree in a field other than nursing, and other unique degree offerings. The UAB School of Nursing is designated a Pan American Health Organization/World Health Organization Collaborating Centre for International Nursing, hosts a Paul D. Coverdell Peace Corps Fellows Program and is one of the leading VA Nursing Academic Partnerships in the nation. Based at the state's flagship Academic Health Science Center with the third largest public hospital in the nation, the School is a leader in collaborative science and home to the state's only nursing-specific research initiative with a diverse funding portfolio supporting scholarship in health equity, oncology, palliative care, HIV/AIDS, pediatrics, occupational health, aging, among others, and faculty hold more than 70 appointments in university-wide research centers. The School also is home to state-of-the-art nursing simulation and skills laboratories with some of the most current technology in health care, providing interdisciplinary students, and faculty, hands-on clinical learning experiences to enhance skills development, teamwork, communication, critical thinking and clinical judgement.

Review of applications will continue until the position is filled.
