WHAT IS PTAO & HOW TO LOOK UP

Similar to your bank account #, PTAO refers to the financial account numbers used in UAB Accounting system

GL accounts have a longer accounting string than a GA account

For example:

3122758.000.213122758.344000000.0000 (GL)

342695.01.01.2023207.10 (GA)

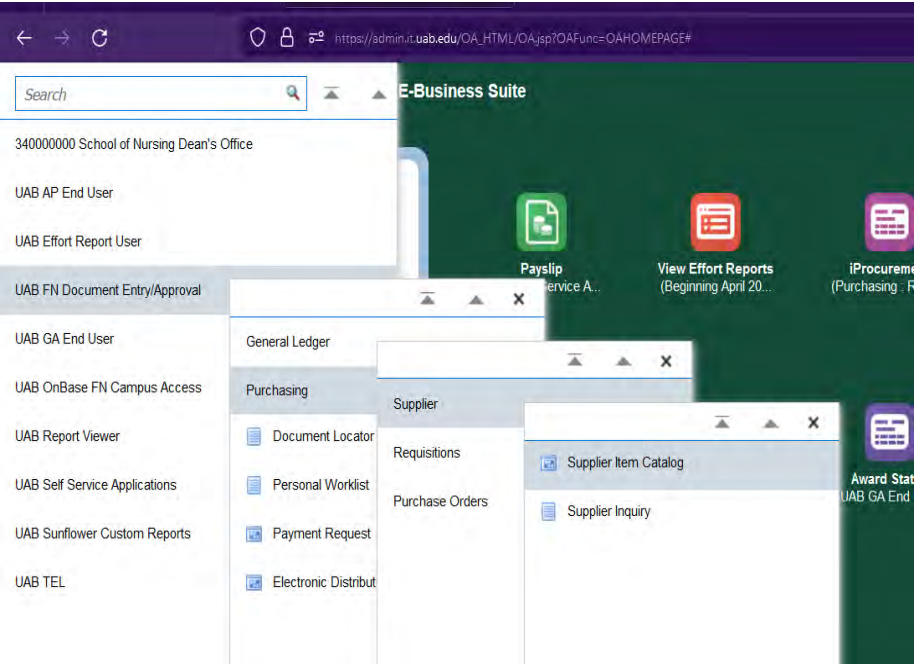

PURCHASING

A word cloud centered around the word 'PURCHASING'. The words are arranged in a circular pattern, with 'PURCHASING' being the largest and most central. Other prominent words include 'Supplies', 'Proposals', 'Best Practices', 'Quotes', 'Negotiation', 'Projects', 'Invitations', 'Vendor', 'Bids', 'Contracts', 'Acquisitions', 'Buying', 'P-Card', 'Analysis', and 'Purchase Order'. The words are in various colors (blue, green, yellow, grey) and orientations (horizontal, vertical, diagonal).

All* UAB vendors are required to register through UAB iSupplier, an online vendor portal that enables suppliers the ability to maintain purchasing and accounts receivable address(es) and contact information as well as retrieve UAB purchase orders.

The FIRST step in the registration process is to complete the iSupplier Registration Request. Upon review, the vendor will receive instructions for completing the registration process.

UAB vendors are eligible for RFQ (Request for Quotation) status. RFQ status enables the vendor to receive future bid solicitations for the commodity or non-professional service indicated on the bid classification form submitted as part of the iSupplier registration.

Direct questions to uabisupplier@uab.edu.
