INTRODUCTION

DEAN'S WELCOME MESSAGE

Welcome to the University of Alabama at Birmingham School of Health Professions! We are pleased you chose to join one of our many excellent programs, which in combination have established us as a national leader in health professions education.

We are home to one of the largest health professions schools in the nation with more than 30 programs at the certificate, baccalaureate, master's, and doctoral levels, with more than 2,000 undergraduate and graduate students enrolled.

Moving into a post-COVID environment is a new start for everyone in health care, and you are in the best place to begin your personal journey toward joining this dynamic field. We are all committed to providing you a world-class education, and to support your pursuit of knowledge and your strong desire to serve others as a healthcare professional.

The pandemic has challenged all of us in many ways, and your entry into one of our professional programs demonstrates one of the most precious personal qualities one can have: resilience. That resilience has brought you here today and will continue to serve you well during your journey at UAB.

We recognize that healthcare needs - even outside of a pandemic - are constantly changing. That is why we continue to add innovative programs to our academic portfolio, and to enhance and revitalize ongoing programs. We also offer graduate programs you will only find in Alabama at UAB, such as Genetic Counseling, Nuclear Medicine and Molecular Imaging, Low Vision Rehabilitation, Health Physics, Healthcare Quality and Safety, doctoral-level Rehabilitation Science, and Biomedical and Health Sciences.

Our degrees and programs are fully accredited by their respective professional organizations. This means you will be eligible for licensure, national certification or registrations and enjoy being in high demand within the job market. Our first-time student exam pass rate on many credentialing exams is an astounding 98 percent or higher.

Graduating from the School of Health Professions means you will acquire an esteemed degree, have a host of job opportunities in healthcare – an industry that continues to grow rapidly – and be well prepared to make a difference in your community. We look forward to maintaining our relationship with you when you join our alumni community.

Our alumni give advice to current students that is worth repeating: “learn your craft, be a better professional for your patients, be open minded to future possibilities, and remember to have a healthy work/ life balance”.

I look forward to seeing you grow in your respective fields and watching you become the leader we know you can be.

Andrew J. Butler, PhD, FAPTA

OVERVIEW OF THE SCHOOL OF HEALTH PROFESSIONS

A leader in federally funded research, the UAB School of Health Professions (SHP), is one of the largest academic institutions of its type in the United States and currently boasts several nationally ranked programs. What began in the 1950's as a collection of training programs in various para-professional disciplines has grown into an internationally recognized center of academic excellence.

The SHP initially took shape in 1969 as UAB gained autonomy within the University of Alabama System. Originally christened the School of Community and Allied Health Resources (SCAHR), the school incorporated the School of Health Services Administration and the Division of Allied Health Sciences from the College of General Studies with parts of the Department of Public Health and Epidemiology from the medical school. An innovative facility designed to meet the growing needs of the health care industry, the SCAHR was divided into four academic divisions that functioned like regular academic departments: Health Services Administration, Public Health and Environment, Allied Health Sciences, and the Regional Technical Institute for Health Occupations.

Throughout the 1970's and 80's the school's offerings were amended to reflect the changing health care industry. As a result of the changes, SCAHR became the School of Public and Allied Health (SPAH). Next it became the School of Community and Allied Health (SCAH) and later the School of Health Related Professions (SHRP). During this time, the school added several new areas of study including a nationally ranked program in Nutrition Sciences. Through the leadership and guidance of early visionaries, the school experienced unparalleled success, which continues to date.

Today, the School of Health Professions is comprised of more than 30 programs – at the certificate, baccalaureate, master's, and doctoral levels – across five academic departments: Clinical and Diagnostic Sciences, Health Services Administration, Nutrition Sciences, Occupational Therapy, and Physical Therapy. The school is housed in three buildings, the Susan Mott Webb Nutrition Sciences Building, the Learning Resource Center Building, and the School of Health Professions Building (SHPB).

With more than 2,200 faculty, staff, and students, SHP is one of six schools comprising the world-renowned UAB Academic Health Center. Students have access to vast academic resources, state-of-the-art facilities, and progressive research.

SHP is proud of many accomplishments including:

- U.S. News & World Report ranks SHP programs in the nation's top 25
- Research funding is over $14 million and growing
- The school is at the top of the list in research funding from the National Institutes of Health for schools of its type and has been either first or second in funding received since 1969

Under the current leadership of Dean Andrew Butler, the school has never been stronger, or better positioned as a national leader in health professions education.

ATTENDANCE

Class attendance is expected in all SHP programs. Specific class, laboratory or clinical site attendance requirements may be more stringent than university guidelines. Refer to the program requirements in this handbook and in course syllabi for policies. The UAB policy for undergraduates follows.

The University of Alabama at Birmingham recognizes that the academic success of individual students is related to their class attendance and participation. Each course instructor is responsible for establishing policies concerning class attendance and make-up opportunities. Any such policies, including points for attendance and/or participation, penalties for absences, limits on excused absences, total allowable absences, etc., must be specified in the course syllabus provided to students at the beginning of the course term. Such policies are subject to departmental oversight and may not, by their specific prescriptions, negate or circumvent the accommodations provided below for excused absences.

The University regards certain absences as excused and, in those instances, requires that instructors provide an accommodation for the student who misses assignments, presentations, examinations, or other academic work of a substantive nature by virtue of these excused absences. Examples include the following:

Absences due to jury or military duty provided that official documentation have been provided to the instructor in a timely manner in advance.

Absences of students registered with Disabilities Services for disabilities eligible for "a reasonable number of disability-related absences" provided students give their instructors notice of a disability-related absence in advance or as soon as possible.

Absences due to participation in university-sponsored activities when the student is representing the university in an official capacity and as a critical participant, provided that the procedures below have been followed:

Before the end of the add/drop period, students must provide their instructor a schedule of anticipated excused absences in or with a letter explaining the nature of the expected absences from the director of the unit or department sponsoring the activity.

If a change in the schedule occurs, students are responsible for providing their instructors with advance written notification from the sponsoring unit or department.

Absences due to other extenuating circumstances that instructors deem excused. Such classification is at the discretion of the instructor and is predicated upon consistent treatment of all students. In these instances, instructors must devise a system for reasonable accommodation including, for example, policies allowing for dropped exams/quizzes, make-up exams, rescheduling of student classroom presentations or early or later submission of written assignments.

Withdrawal from a course or from your program is an official process and should be discussed with your academic advisor and / or program director. Most programs in the School are full-time and the curricula specifically sequenced. Withdrawal from a course may risk your wait time to register for the class again. You might have to wait for a full year before resuming enrollment in the program. Withdrawals are made through the UAB registration system via the Student Resources tab in BlazerNET. Notice of program withdrawal should be given in writing to the program director. Please refer to the following link for additional information on withdrawal guidelines: <https://www.uab.edu/students/one-stop/classes/add-drop-and-withdrawal-policy>

SECTION 2 – SHP AND UAB POLICIES

SCHOOL OF HEALTH PROFESSIONS POLICIES

BACKGROUND CHECK AND DRUG SCREEN

POLICY

With the exceptions noted below, students admitted to clinical and non-clinical programs in the School of Health Professions (SHP) will complete a routine drug screening and criminal background check using the approved vendor (Castlebranch). These screenings should be completed prior to the end of the first term of enrollment. A second routine drug screening and criminal background check using the approved school vendor, or a vendor required by the assigned clinical facility, will be completed prior to placement in assigned fieldwork. Any required additional screenings, and/or those specified by waived programs, will be at the discretion of the program.

Students enrolled in SHP undergraduate programs requiring an internship or other site placement as a component of degree requirements will complete a learning module in the campus learning management system by the end of the first semester of enrollment. They will submit the results of a drug screening and criminal background check from an approved vendor, prior to the end of the semester, immediately preceding the semester for which the internship or site placement occurs.

- School-negotiated fees for these screenings will be the responsibility of the student.
- Students who have completed the screenings as a condition of enrollment in a previous SHP program, are waived from the requisite unless the current program of enrollment also includes an internship or fieldwork placement component for degree completion.
- Drug screening and background check results performed by an approved vendor, within the most recent twelve months, may fulfill the SHP requirement
- The rules and regulations governing individual fieldwork placement sites may include additional provisions and/or more stringent guidelines which supersede this policy. Fees for these screenings are the responsibility of the student.
- Should you fail the drug screening, or your background check contains issues that may prevent you from receiving or sitting for licensure, a representative from the Office of the Senior Associate Dean for Academic and Faculty Affairs will contact you. Depending upon the outcome, you may be dismissed from the program. See your program's guidelines regarding specific consequences.

Programs requiring a background check and drug screening by the end of the first semester of enrollment and again, prior to fieldwork placement (if applicable in the program requirements) are the following:

* Students enrolled in exempt programs who participate in a course(s) incorporating community, corporate or other high impact, out-of-classroom activities such as service learning, capstone projects or other hands-on learning experiences, may be required by placement sites to submit background check and drug screening results. Students are responsible for the fees associated with such screening

Attachment 1: Procedure for Criminal Background Check and Drug Screening

1. Program directors (or designees) provide all accepted students with instructions for completing a background check and drug screening.
2. Students request the specified package on the approved SHP vendor website and pay the required fees.
3. Assigned designee(s) in the SHP Office for Academic and Faculty Affairs review and provide compliance reports for programs.
4. In the event a report reveals information which may prevent a student from being placed in a fieldwork rotation or potentially makes them ineligible for professional certification or licensure, the SHP Office of Academic and Faculty Affairs works in conjunction with the program director to notify the student. If such information exists, the student must acknowledge in writing their decision to continue in the program's didactic phase with the understanding that a degree cannot be awarded without completion of required fieldwork placement.
5. Prior to fieldwork placement, program directors (or designees) will provide students with instructions to complete a repeat background check and drug screening. In addition, some sites require a social media background check. The package code for this is different than the initial drug screen and background package code. If a vendor is specified by the placement site or preceptor, the preceptor (or designee) will provide students with instructions.
6. Students are responsible for all additional fieldwork placement requirements.
7. The program director discusses with individual student's implications for information which may inhibit an assigned fieldwork placement.
8. Students provide preceptors or internship supervisors with the required information from the results of their background check and drug screening reports if required.

CAPSTONE

All students are required to complete an applied project to fulfill the requirements for the Healthcare Simulation Program and to qualify for graduation. The capstone project should be something that is useful to the organization for whom the project is being completed and must be approved by the academic advisor. The capstone culminates with a formal presentation and written deliverable.

DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

STEPS TO COMPLETING CERTIFICATE OR DEGREE

A summary of the steps required for the Graduate Certificate or Master of Science in Healthcare Simulation:

1. Admission to program,
2. Adherence to academic performance policy (see section on academic performance),
3. Satisfactory completion of coursework,
4. Application for certificate or degree – no later than two weeks into the expected term of graduation,
5. Completion of all financial obligations to the University of Alabama at Birmingham, and
6. Conferring of certificate or degree.

ATTENDANCE AND CONTRIBUTION

As appropriate, you are to attend all class meetings as defined by your instructors and the Program (on campus visits and synchronous web-enabled instructor/student meetings) and other planned meetings (e.g. teams). If you must miss a class meeting, inform your instructor in advance, or as soon as practical. It is the Program's expectations that you:

- Are prepared and participate in all class sessions/activities/assignments (synchronous and asynchronous).
- For synchronous classes, you should be on time and should not expect to leave early. Showing up late and "slipping away early" are unacceptable behaviors.
- Engage instructors and peers in meaningful discussion of the class topics. Participants must be engaged and make significant contributions.
- Come to class prepared to contribute meaningfully in discussions. Class assignments are akin to business work assignments.
- Ask questions to seek understanding. It is the student's responsibility to explore ways to comprehend the material, if he or she does not understand an assignment or topic.

If enrolled in the Simulation Intensive section of the program:

- You are to attend the on-site intensive during the semester of enrollment. Failing to attend an on-site session is equivalent to missing a term's worth of work.

- If you anticipate an emergency call, set the device to vibrate. The use of cell phones for talking and/or text messaging in class is not allowed.

DISTANCE LEARNING AND CANVAS

Each course will employ a variety of distance-learning instructional methods. Course requirements may involve reading selections from texts, periodicals, and empirical literature; participating in online discussions with instructors and fellow students; conducting applied projects; writing research papers; and completing assignments that are designed to reinforce course principles and analytic skills. Students will access course materials, syllabi, readings, assignments, etc. via the online Canvas system or through the UAB library system. Canvas course sites can be accessed through BlazerNET or at www.uab.edu/canvas. Students should monitor their course sites routinely for communication from faculty and to manage course assignments. Course sites are available on the first day of class each semester.

Assignments and due dates will be described in the course syllabus at the beginning of each semester.

Course materials (including readings, assignments, and course announcements) will be available on Canvas. Students are responsible for accessing Canvas on a regular basis and are expected to be aware of all assignment due dates.

Assignments should be submitted via Canvas. Email is not a reliable method for submitting assignments and is discouraged for this purpose. Canvas has an email feature that should be used for all communication with instructors.

Communication between students and instructors is key to the success of any distance-learning activity. Instructors are accessible via email, phone call, and/or video conferencing during the off-campus portion of the course. Additionally, faculty are in the office regularly and you are encouraged to visit with them in person as geography permits. Please refer to the course syllabus for contact information and details regarding instructor availability and communication expectations.

Some courses may have synchronous sessions that require attendance/participation. Each course syllabus will have scheduled dates/times and attendance requirements.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Students are expected to adhere to the Healthcare Simulation policy on Academic Honesty and Integrity (detailed policy below).

If you believe that you will have any difficulty fulfilling any of these expectations, please discuss with your instructor at the beginning of the semester. It is the student's responsibility to both understand and comply with this Code of Conduct policy and all UAB policies. Violations to the Code of Conduct Policy will be addressed on a case-by-case basis.

Consequences may include but are not limited to:

1. Counseling the student
2. Lowering the student's grade, including a grade of zero, and/or
3. And/or dismissal from the Program.

The Healthcare Simulation Program follows the SHP Grievance Procedures for Violations of Academic Standards.

Policy on Academic Honesty and Integrity

The University of Alabama at Birmingham expects all members of its academic community to function according to the highest ethical and professional standards of behavior. The Healthcare Simulation Program regards honesty and integrity as qualities essential to the professional practice and profession. The purpose of this policy is to promote guidelines so that each student can fully develop his/her individual potential and to cultivate behaviors and values that will contribute to his/her performance as a leader. This policy governs student conduct in all academic activities associated with Healthcare Simulation. A description of expectations for non-academic conduct, violations of these expectations and possible disciplinary action can be found in the Graduate Student Catalog (<http://catalog.uab.edu/graduate/academicprogress/#academicethicsandmisconducttext>).

Each student is expected to:

1. Represent truthfully fact and self at all times and not to misrepresent one's work at any time. Examples include always making correct representation for work presented as one's own. Work presented as group work should be the product of the specified members of the group. Work presented as individual work should be the product of that individual alone. Group work assumes collaboration by all members of the group. All other work should be an individual effort.
2. Not seek an unfair advantage over other students, including, but not limited to, giving or receiving unauthorized aid during completion of academic requirements. Examples of an unfair advantage include receipt and/or use of test and/or test preparation material, paper and/or paper preparation material, and project and/or project preparation material from either the current academic year or a prior academic year obtained without authorization and consent of a faculty member, use of instructors' manuals, or other material not intended for student use

3. Report violations of these expectations and to cooperate with any investigation of an alleged violation; and
4. To obey applicable organizational rules and laws, including confidentiality of information.

Reports of suspected academic misconduct can be confidentially initiated, without fear of retaliation, by a faculty or staff member, preceptor, or student colleague who has direct knowledge of such behavior. Some instances within an individual classroom on an individual assignment may be handled on a case-by-case basis with the instructor but will also be reported to the Program Director. If necessary for instance, if another student is bringing forth a charge, the instructor will then notify the student of the charge and provide the student with an opportunity to respond. The Program Director will be notified of all reports of suspected academic misconduct that result in counselling a student. If, at that time, the student cannot refute the charge effectively, or denies the charge, the instructor and Program Director will consult with the Department Chair. If needed, a confidential investigation of the misconduct will be conducted.

Based on the results of this investigation, the Program Director will make a recommendation no longer than three weeks after the initial charge. The Program Director will make a decision regarding the alleged misconduct and notify the student of his/her decision, in writing, of the recommendation. Copies of correspondence related to the allegation and investigation will be sent to the Chair of the Department of Health Services Administration, and if necessary, the Associate Dean for Academics for the School of Health Professions, and the Dean of the Graduate School.

If, as determined by the Program Director and the HSA Department Chair, the act of academic misconduct is a second offense in one Program or across Programs, the student may be expelled from the Program. This expulsion may or may not carry over to other Programs, such as dual degree or collaborative Programs. Expulsion will result in a transcript inscription "Expelled for Academic Misconduct." Appeals of decisions may be made in accordance with Graduate School policy.

Completion of the Academic Integrity Code (AIC) Canvas course is required by students and is automatically enrolled in Canvas. Students who do not complete the course by the given deadline will receive a registration hold for future terms until completion. If you are unsure if you have completed the course, check with your school AIC Coordinator:

<https://www.uab.edu/faculty/resources/academicintegrity-code/academic-coordinators>.

ACADEMIC PERFORMANCE

To be in good academic standing in the Graduate School, a student must maintain a grade point average of at least 3.0 (on a 4.0 scale). Students are dismissed upon earning the second "C" through the life of the Program. Any courses that are being transferred in (such as certificate courses) in which a "C" was earned count toward this rule. Students will be considered to be making satisfactory progress toward the certificate or degree if they follow the prescribed course sequence established by the Program. Students whose schedules vary from the sequence must discuss this variance with the Program Director.

Students who are admitted on probation must demonstrate their ability to perform at the level required for graduation by establishing good academic standing at the end of the first semester of academic coursework. Students who do not accomplish this level of performance will be dismissed from the Program and the UAB Graduate School.

A student who has been in good academic standing, but who at the end of any regular term fails to meet the criteria to continue in good academic standing (a 3.0 grade point average or better), will be placed on probation. Such a student must re-establish good academic standing within the next two regular terms of graduate study undertaken. Students who do not accomplish this level of performance will be dismissed from the Program and the UAB Graduate School.

A student who earns two grades of "C," or any grade of "F" on any course taken in pursuit of the Healthcare Simulation degree or certificate will be dismissed from the Program. It is the Program Director's prerogative to decide if a student may enter his/her final project with a grade point average of less than 3.0 in academic coursework needed to complete the Healthcare Simulation degree. A student receiving a grade of "I" in a course has until the end of the following semester to remove the deficiency or the grade is automatically changed to an "F." It is the student's responsibility to keep track of this timing and avoid this from happening. Once the "I" has rolled over to an "F," it will not be changed.

TIME LIMITATIONS

Healthcare Simulation students are generally expected to complete all degree requirements within 3 years of matriculation for master's students. If mitigating circumstances preclude completion of requirements within the time limits, please contact the Program Director with a request for extension that includes a plan and timeline for completion. This plan will be submitted to the Graduate School for approval. The time of degree cannot exceed five years.

REGISTRATION

It is each student's responsibility to register for the appropriate courses. Students are expected to register through the UAB registration portal on BlazerNet (<https://uab.edu/blazernet>). Registration may commence as soon as the student has received notification of admission from the Graduate School, but no sooner than 60 days before classes are to begin. Continuing students should register before final exams in their current semester. Certain courses will require an "override" by Program staff and it is the responsibility of the student to contact the appropriate person to perform that override. Because of this need, it is strongly recommended that students register as early as possible and not wait until the last minute. We will not waive late registration fees. BlazerNET is available 24/7, but the Add/Drop function within Registration Tools will end when the registration period closes. Students experiencing difficulty (outside of overrides) with BlazerNET should call the Registrar's Office at 1.205.934.8228 or email registrar@uab.edu.

FOLLOW THESE STEPS TO REGISTER USING BLAZERNET:

1. Access BlazerNET with your web browser.
2. Log in with your Blazer ID and strong password.
